James Walsh Design & www.jaraphic.com

August 2008 - Present

2001-2008

Self employed as a Graphic/Web designer, produced websites and printed materials for a range of local, self sourced clients.
Jaraphic is the new trading name for my freelance design business. I built the site from the ground up using CSS and XHTML (w3c standards compliant) and jQuery Tools for UI interaction. All branding, graphics and content were created by myself.

Freelance screen designs and branding for Multimedia Projects, various clients. (www.mmprojects.co.uk)

Various part-time retail work. (Gamestation, Higgins Clothing Co, Saltaire Diner)
